Changes Come Over Time

Science and technology revolutionize our lives, but memory, tradition and myth frame our response - Arthur M. Schlessinger

"Technology", a word that can scare a person to the point of never wanting to use it, or it can excite a person to wrap their mind around it and explore new possibilities. At Auburn Homes and Services we continue to explore these new possibilities that support and enhance the personalized care we provide to those in the community who put their trust in us for their care.

For more than a decade Auburn has invested in building a strong infrastructure that has given us the opportunity to implement new technologies that we believe will strengthen our ability to provide better care. Electronic health records, electronic prescriptions, point of care software and resident vital signs equipment that integrate directly to the health records are some of the many pieces of technology implemented to date. Another example is wireless sensors used in our memory care programs.

David, a resident in The Courtyard at Auburn, was utilizing our bedroom motion sensors. During the overnight shift we noted an increase in nighttime wandering. In using this information we were able to speak with the doctor and family regarding a medication adjustment. Because of this information we were able to better meet David's needs and enhance his quality of life.

We are currently working toward implementing different therapy programs such as music therapy. This is a program that goes beyond just listening to music. The 2014 documentary "Alive Inside" explores the power of music therapy for the elderly and those with dementia and Alzheimer's disease. In the film, social worker Dan Cohen advocates using music to restore a sense of identity in patients whose memory loss often results in isolation and despair.

Relaxing, meditational music really calms Bob, who has dementia. One day a caregiver changed things up and put on a CD of American patriotic songs sung by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir. Bob perked up and was interested in all of the music, staying engaged for almost an hour. The staff was amazed. Studies share that "music is magic, a backdoor to the brain not affected by aging or dementia, using pathways to reach and stimulate one who is otherwise unreachable."

Moving into the future, Auburn will continue to explore new technology and measure it against our mission of "providing care in the Spirit of Christ's love". Ensuring that it enhances not only the needs of our residents but the needs of the community.

Every day he greets the staff with a kind smile and words of encouragement.

Daily routines keep Jack engaged in the community at Auburn Meadows. Every morning Jack sits at the front desk in the lobby sorting through the morning newspapers for his delivery route and always greets everyone he passes along the way.

Jack is a trailblazer and advocate in the Auburn Meadows community. He believes that the only way to improve something is to step up and become part of the change. He recruits others to engage in activities whether it's playing a game of cards or a simple conversation. He is always the first person to speak up for his peers and make suggestions to improve their quality of life. From getting a sign that shows when the mail has been delivered to getting everyone to go out to eat at the best restaurants in town, Jack is a spearhead.

Jack Bell has a contagious zest for life and is an amazing role model for all ages young and old. It is an honor to have such a remarkable man residing at Auburn Homes and Services.

Auburn Homes and Services is honored and proud to announce that Jack Bell won the Spirit of Aging award this year at the Leading Age Institute of Minnesota. The Spirit of Aging award celebrates a resident that embodies the concept of positive and active aging. The candidates for this award display active aging by participating in activities that challenge the traditional stereotypes and also make a positive difference in the lives of other seniors. Jack was chosen to receive this prominent award from among 750 applicants. He received a standing ovation from the over 4000 professionals in senior care services at the Leading Age Institute held in St. Paul on February 10, 2016.

We give great thanks to family, friends, and employees who have asked these questions and have made gifts and/or volunteered their time to Auburn Homes this past year. The people of Auburn Homes have been blessed by your partnership during this past year. We say partnership in a very real sense, because it is only with your support and participation in the work of the Foundation that we are able to accomplish anything!

Wonderful Support through the Shining Star Program

"Lisa is so caring and does a thorough job. She has good ideas to make things better for mom."

"I wish to honor Tracy because of her dedication to the residents of both the Chaska and Waconia campuses."

"For the love, friendship and care of my husband."

"All staff in memory care are awesome to my mom. They are always smiling and helpful."

"For the chaplain's caring concern in times of stress and grief and her availability whenever she's needed."

"Understanding and kindness for both myself and my husband."

"She is very responsive and attentive to my mother's needs. She pays attention to details for the residents and makes suggestions where needed. I so appreciate her and trust her to take care of my mother."

There is a unique and personal story for every "Shining Star" recipient. The Shining Star program recognizes and thanks an individual who has provided care that was not only great, but personal and exceptional; someone who provided care that "made your day", "touched your heart", or "calmed a concern". It is a program whereby residents and/or family members can give a gift to Auburn Homes and Services in honor of their special "Shining Star(s)".

This past year 27 Shining Star gifts were received. Through those 27 gifts, 42 employees and one full department were recognized for their thoughtfulness, special acts of kindness and the outstanding care they provided.

Your "Shining Star" is honored with a Shining Star pin, a constant reminder to them of your thoughtfulness. They are also recognized in front of their peers during one of our regular "stand-up" meetings and in our employee newsletter, "The Buzz". Each award is recorded in their permanent employee record.

Your charitable gift will be directed to our undesignated fund to be used in the facility and area of your "Shining Star". Your recognition and thanks validates the wonderful work being done by a caring staff.

If you would like to recognize a "Shining Star", brochures are available at the reception area in each of our facilities or online at www.auburnhomes.org.

ow much love we put into giving."

"Tis the Season"

Sold Out Festival of Trees Event!!

"Tis the Season" was the theme for our 4th annual Festival of Trees event held at the Oak Ridge Conference Center, Chaska. Over $93,000 was raised and, for the first time we had a "sold out house" as 234 people joined us for a wonderful evening of fun and fellowship with a purpose.

The gala is the premier event of the year for Auburn Homes and features beautiful designer decorated Christmas trees, an elegant dinner, live and silent auctions, wine raffle, dancing, and an amazing Fund-A-Need auction.

The first purpose of the Festival of Trees is to raise funds to support the Life Enhancement programs for each of our facilities in both Chaska and Waconia. These programs have daily impact on the quality of life for our residents, helping them:

- *maintain their independence, individuality and dignity as they age;
- *stay involved, active and growing;
- *enrich their lives by bringing them experiences that keep them young at heart;
- *enhance their sense of freedom and enjoyment of life;
- *create lasting, shared memories.

The goal of our Fund-A-Need auction this year was to help purchase a new hand-icap-accessible bus. With $60,700 raised in a leadership campaign this past summer, the Fund-A-Need auction raised over $31,000, that evening! This amazing response enabled us to purchase the new bus and expand our transportation program.

A very special thanks to Yetzer's Home Furnishings and Floor Coverings as our 4-year Diamond sponsor! A sincere thank you to all our event sponsors. Thank you to all who were in attendance or donated to this important event.

The support generated through Festival of Trees helps Auburn Homes and Services continue to provide the high quality, personal care, given to our seniors in the "Spirit of Christ's Love."
